#GotMusic Campaign

Throughout the entire month of November, KFHS Radio is looking for new music to put on the radio. KFHS is looking for local bands/artists of all genres.

This year the #GotMusic Campaign is seeking to have over 100 new songs by multiple bands/artists from across the country.

"This will be able to increase our reach and help establish our brand as a station that features up and coming bands/artists and plays things for our local audience that is not the same as the mainstream." - Station Manager, Kadrae D. Smith

Share this message with any local bands/artists you may know, from Fort Hays, or your hometowns and help grow your College Radio Station, KFHS Radio.

Bands/Artists need to email kfhs.fhsu@gmail.com with the following information:

Name:

Bio:

Links to the music(wav or mp3):

Social Media/Website Links:

Stream KFHS Radio at Tigermedianet.com or on the "TuneIn" mobile app.

Geography Awareness Week

See below for dates and times

Tomanek Hall 121

Are you Aware? Aware of how Geography surrounds you... and how it affects you on a daily basis?

Each year the Department of Geosciences celebrates Geography Awareness Week and GIS Day with activities and events to help us all take a closer look at the world around us.

We invite you to participate in any of our events, and hope you will share these opportunities with your students this week.

Wednesday, November 15 GIS DAY

Curious about Geographic Information Systems (GIS) and want to know (or share) how the daily applications of GIS may be impacting you? GIS Day @FHSUGeo is part of a nationwide event to promote awareness of GIS and how we all use this evolving tool to analyze our world.

11:00-12:00 pm "Basics of GIS Workshop" Tomanek Hall 121

This workshop, hosted by FHSU Faculty members Dr. Richard Lisichenko and Dr. Tom Schafer, will provide a hands-on opportunity to learn how to utilize GIS to analyze patterns in the world and data around you.

12:00-1:00 pm Lunch will be provided for presenters and attendees. RSVP requested to geosciences@fhsu.edu

1:30-2:30pm "GIS in Kansas, Projects and Careers" Tomanek Hall 121

The Director of the Kansas Data Access and Support Center (DASC), Ken Nelson, will be presenting the on-going DASC projects in Kansas. Additionally, this special presentation will provide information on prospects for GIS applications and GIS careers in Kansas.

Activities throughout the week

Chalkboard Chat – Visit the Geography Awareness Chalkboard to give your opinion on geography issues. A new question or thought will be posted daily. Chalkboard is located on the 2nd Floor of Tomanek Hall across from room 233.

GeoGuessr – Check out this on-line competition! Practice your observation and analysis skills while virtually exploring the world through the on-line game Geoguessr

GPS Scavenger Hunt – Feeling adventurous, or interested in learning more about points of interest in the Hays area? This GPS Scavenger Hunt just might be your ticket to fun. A list of coordinates and questions to answer once you find each location on the Scavenger Hunt will be available in Tomanek Hall 121 throughout the week.

Photography Contest - All are welcome to submit a photograph in the annual Photography Contest. This year's categories are: Geology, Water, Weather, Ecology, Humans and the Earth, or The Geography of Civil Rights. Contest open through November 27.

For additional information on Geography Awareness Week and GIS Day events visit

<http://www.fhsu.edu/geo/Events/GAW/>.

Events hosted by FHSU Department of Geosciences. For additional information contact us at 785-628-5389.

Memorial Union Sunset Atrium

Fort Hays State University and the FHSU Foundation will announce a large gift in support of the university at a news conference at 10 a.m. tomorrow/Thursday, November 16, in the Memorial Union's Sunset Atrium.

An update will also be provided for the university's $100 million Journey Campaign, the largest fundraising campaign in FHSU history.

Please encourage fellow faculty, staff and students to attend. Thank you in advance!

AAUW Organic Networking and Coffee

Thursday, November 16; 3:00pm to 4:00pm

Memorial Union Smoky Hill Room

The next AAUW coffee/organic networking meeting has been scheduled for November 16 at 3:00pm to 4:00pm in the Smoky Hill Room of the Memorial Union. The general topic of discussion is: "Do females govern differently?". Bring a cup of coffee, relax, and chat as we network with our fellow colleagues at FHSU.

-The Women of AAUW

Paul Shirley

Thursday, November 16; 5:00pm

Memorial Union Ballroom

There aren't many professional basketball players who can say they came from a small town of 700 in Kansas. There also aren't many professional basketball players who've gone on to write books. Paul Shirley can claim both. During this event, Paul will share his opportunities to live in cities across the globe, lessons he's learned on adaptability, and how to succeed in the world.

He'll also give copies of his new book, "Stories I Tell On Dates," to the first 100 people through the door. The event is free to the university and public.

The event will be put on by the FHSU Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). For additional information, please contact Nicholas Schmidt at ncschmidt@mail.fhsu.edu.

New Media Undergraduate Fellowship and Scholarship

For the second year, The Institute for New Media Studies is excited to accept proposals for the New Media Undergraduate Fellowship program at Fort Hays State University. Applications are being accepted for fellowships during the Spring 2018 semester. Please share this unique undergraduate research opportunity with any students that may be interested or you would recommend.

- Students are eligible to receive a $350 scholarship associated with their project
- Students have exciting opportunities to engage unique aspects of new media
- Students spend time in the research lab and on collaborative projects across campus
- Students may earn up to three credit hours each semester towards their programs
- Students can fulfill Honors College Experience requirements for each semester
- Students accomplish work comparable to graduate studies and professional research

Examples of past student projects include a virtual reality cow anatomy program, a 3D x-Ray brain tool, an interactive mapping tool for campus, a LEGO robot that can intelligently navigate to items on the shelves in Forsyth Library, a video training tool for student athletes, a virtual reality FHSU campus, and a music education app. Projects can come from any field or subject. Areas of research in the lab that might be of interest to applicants include: social media, virtual reality, augmented reality, videogames, animation, interactive tools, design/construction, teaching tools or classroom activities, artistic works, entrepreneurship, robotics, and innovative videography. Other ideas are welcome as well.

Fellowships are not theoretical. All work is directly applied to the business of the university and will play a role in executing the duties of the Institute for New Media Studies. Students leave their fellowship with real skills, a hefty resume, and the competitive edge needed in the workplace or for advanced graduate studies.

Apply by FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, by visiting: <http://bigcat.fhsu.edu/newmedia/fellowship/>.
